

Conditions :

Recording and/or transmitting devices, including but not limited to cameras and other video equipment, recorders and other audio equipment, wireless and fixed line electronic communications devices (including but not limited to computers, tablets and mobile phones), may only be used within the venue for purely private and domestic use, (i.e. they may not be used to sell, license, broadcast, publish or otherwise commercially exploit any recording, information, or other aspect of events taking place within the venue).